derabad to finalise a comprehensive action plan to combat the menance of Naxalite violence in these States;

(b) if so, the details of the action plan finalised; and

(c) the other steps taken to curb extremistroperation?

THE MINISTER OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI L.K. ADVANI): (a) Yes Sir.

(b) The following decisions were taken:—

(i) The existing laws such as the National Security Act will continue to be invoked by the concerned State Governments. Simultaneously, the State Governments could examine enactment of a separate law to deal with the left wing extremist problem.

(ii) A comprehensive Plan of Action encompassing development activities as well as stepped up security measures will have to be prepared by the States. Andhra Pradesh Government have already prepared such a plan which has been referred to the Planning Commission. Other State Governments should also prepare similar plans which will be taken up with the planning Commission for allocation of funds.

(iii) A Coordination Centre will be set up at Hyderabad for reviewing the progress of the Action Plan and to coordinate the efforts of the State Governments. Union Home Secretary will be the Chairman of the Committee with Chief Secretaries and Directors General of Police of the four States as Members.

Ministry of Home Affairs has set up the Coordination Centre on 26.6.1998. State Government have been requested to take immediate action on the decisions taken at the meeting.

(c) Central Government has taken adequate measures to help the States to fight the menace. These. include holding of coordination meetings with the States concerned as well as with the various intelligence and vinestigating agencies of the Central Government to exchange information, share intelligence, plan strategy and taken coordinated action. In certain special circumstances, financial assistance has also been given to some of the affected States over and above the on-going allocations for modernisation of police and supply of weapons. Training of police personnel in anti-extremist operations has also been arranged. Central Government in consultation with concerned States has drawn up an Action Plan in this regard which includes:—

(i) Ensuring security of police stations, particularly those located in naxalite affected areas.

(ii) Having a common communication system;

(iii) Setting up a Control Room in each State;

(iv) Joint patrolling;.

(v) Launching of Area Domination programme among the State;

(vi) Strengthening of intelligence network in affected areas in concerned States;

(vii) Training of police personnel in anti-extremist operations.

State Governments have been requested to take immediate steps to implement the above Action Plan. Action taken by the States is being reviewed from time to time.
